“GCS-307: Advanced Pools - Options for Restructuring Your Indirect Rate Structure,” Kevin Hite (two sessions).

NeoSystems will also be exhibiting in Kiosk 24a.

Commenting on the event, Michael Tinsley, Founder and President of NeoSystems said, “This year’s conference, especially against the backdrop of the stimulus package and ever increasing regulations on government contractors, is very important. The conference will help many companies to learn how they can better meet government accounting and compliance challenges at this important and opportune time.”
